TRAINING

Proud to be a Queensland Government
Subsidised training provider

Become a valued member of the community services industry.

Prepare yourself to work in a range of community service areas such as Aged Care, Disability, Youth Work and more.

By completing this intermediate level qualification, you will learn about case management, individual needs planning, health and well-being strategies, working with disabilities, cultural diversity, working with at-risk individuals and facilitating accurate referrals to specialist services.

Our highly-experienced trainers provide guidance and support every step of the way, to ensure you have the knowledge and practical skills you need to work in this field.

The social and community services sector is predicted to experience strong growth over the next 5 years with an excess of 50,000 job openings expected. This is due to an increased support for the sector through the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS).

If you want a course that will best assist you in furthering your career in Community Services with flexible study options and supportive training, this qualification may be for you!

Successful completion of this course will also give you the option to undertake further studies in the community services and health sectors.

Working in community services, your actions help those who are struggling the most and give them hope for a brighter future.
