The CHC40321 Certificate IV in Child, Youth and Family Intervention is ideal for individuals who want to work with vulnerable children, young people, and families in the community!

This course equips you with the knowledge and skills necessary to aid at-risk children, youth, and families through early intervention and family support services to improve their well-being.

You will learn how to communicate effectively, implement family intervention strategies, recognise and assist at-risk youth, and work with individuals with mental illness.

Our experienced instructors will provide personalised instruction and real-world industry experience to prepare you for a career in child & family welfare.

Upon completion, you will be qualified to work as a relationship educator, family support worker, or youth residential care worker. These services may be provided in family support settings, as well as in residential and out-of-home care settings.

Get started in a field with expanding job opportunities that offers a variety of positions and working environments, including options for flexible and remote work.
